President's Message

We had a productive November. The PTSA now has a Chairperson for the Special Education Committee. Penny Zenelis was with us when Westfield High School first opened and now has a 9th grade daughter, Ariana.

I am looking for a select group of parents to participate in the School Accreditation by SACS/CASI (Southern Association of Colleges and Schools/Virginia Council of Accreditation and School Improvement Committee). It is an opportunity to help the school focus on improvement and improve their standards. The Quality Review team visit for WHS is scheduled for March 16—18, 2009. The team will visit WHS for three days, when they will evaluate the school's adherence to a set of seven standards and indicators as delineated by the State of Virginia. The accreditation is done every 5 years. It is an important process because the team makes recommendations to Virginia about our status. It is a great way to get involved and have some input! Please contact me if interested at ptsa\_president@westfieldhs.org.

The PTSA sponsored Minority Achievement Committee holiday potluck dinner will be held at WHS on December 18th. We will not be having a PTSA meeting that evening so members will be free to attend the MAC event.

I will be overseas until January. In my absence, please contact Jennifer Campbell if you have any questions. I will try to stay connected via email as travel permits.

Take the opportunity to make some resolutions for the New Year. Write to your child's teachers to follow up on their school work. Spend more time with your children. They may be more willing to listen to what you say and enjoy your company by doing any of the following:

- Turn off the TV and talk with one another
- Share their interests and listen to them
- Spend more time listening and less time criticizing
- Let them know their thoughts and opinion have value by talking to them and not at them
- Praise them more often
- Don't lecture them when they do something wrong; they only listen to the first 3 words
- Let them know that they can always turn to you

I wish you a safe and peaceful winter vacation. Have a happy and blessed holiday.

Sincerely,
Salma Ashmawi, WHS PTSA President

Minority Achievement News

The Minority Achievement Committee hosted its Fall Parent Dinner in October and the turnout was tremendous. With the help of many school and parent volunteers, the dinner was attended by over 100 parents and faculty/administrators. A panel discussion on increasing parent involvement and being a better advocate for your child was held and the discussion was both stimulating and invigorating.

Our next parent meeting will be held on Thursday December 18 at 7:00 p.m. in the school cafeteria. We will celebrate the Holiday season with food, beverages and entertainment. Please plan to come out and join us and bring your favorite Holiday dish to share with others.

Please mark these other important dates on your calendar.

- Dec 18 7–9 Cafeteria: Annual Holiday Celebration
- March 11 7–9 Cafeteria: Spring Parent Coffee
- June 3 5–9 Cafeteria: End of Year MAC Barbeque

Volunteers Committee News

"Great opportunities to help others seldom come, but small ones surround us everyday" ~ Sally Koch

Hats off to the many volunteers who assisted with the health screening in the first week of November! Kudos also to the volunteers who knocked out the Government Survey forms in just one day – a new record! FYI: In your back-to school PTA packet, if you indicated an interest in volunteering for particular activities (e.g. ACE Honor roll, 5K run, Career Center, etc), your contact information has been sent to the person in charge of that activity.

Depending when in the year the activity occurs, you may not have heard from the activity chair yet. If you want more information now – perhaps to mark your calendar – please go to the PTSA web site and click on the contact email for the activity you are interested in. The chair of the activity will receive your inquiry and get back to you. Please feel free to contact me at volunteerCoord@westfieldhs.org if you have any questions.

*Happy Holidays! Suzanne Olijar
Volunteer Coordinator*

Parent Guide to Personal Safety for Youth

Because of the exceptional popularity of the KidSafe Virginia parent guides, the Governor's Office for Substance Abuse Prevention (GOSAP) recently worked to revise, update, and combine the previous parent guides into one guide. The purpose of the new publication, Prevention Comes First: Parent Guide to Personal Safety for Youth, is to educate parents about some of the potential safety threats children may face and to assist parents in communicating with their children about personal safety.

The topics covered in the guide include: fire safety, internet safety, driving safety, bullying, gangs, inhalant abuse prevention, and underage drinking. Beginning December 1, 2007, the parent guides will be available at fire and rescue stations and Department of Motor Vehicles (DMV) offices throughout the Commonwealth. To locate your nearest visit DMV office homepage.

Copies of the parent guide may also be downloaded from the GOSAP Web site. Questions may be addressed to Jacklyn Varela, special assistant to the Secretary of Public Safety at (804) 692-2568 or by e-mail: jacklyn.varela@governor.virginia.gov
